I'll be the character of a romance fantasy novel?

I was huge fan of light novel regardless of genre in my previous life. If I became one of character in the novels I want to be a cute little girl getting all attention and love from all the people but...my novel is S-class adventure that's hard to survive. Well, luckily I got perk thanks to my <Insurance Service Full Package for transmigrator>...

A story of surviving in S-class adventure with insurance privileges, God's favoritism, full of knowledge as huge fan of light novel!
